

General information

Lately it has come to our attention that some customers who have paid with installments in the Brazilian market, have been overcharged due to a technical error. In alignment with our partner dLocal, we have been able to identify the majority of the affected orders. The respective customers have already been informed about the situation and dLocal started processing the refunds of the affected customers directly on their end.

Affected orders image in Edvin

☐		2022-10-25 16:22 [redacted]	[redacted]	13: Mail Out / 2: Cancellation / refund	2: Already cxnl / 2: Infid refund pending Order affected by installments overcharge in BR market // Bulk email sent to inform pax abt issue and expect a refund in 2-3 weeks.
☐		2022-10-25 16:22 System Internal		Brazilian installments overcharge	Email sent to [redacted] Reply type: No-reply 19 more lines

Mail out

Please be advised that following our investigation, we have learned that the extra charge was a result of a technical error from the payment provider.

Rest assured that the over-charged amount will be refunded to your account shortly. It may take an average of 2-3 weeks for the amount to appear in your account. Unfortunately, we cannot speed up this process as this depends on the handling time of the payment provider.

We apologize for any inconvenience this might have caused.

Kind regards,

Even though we have been able to identify & take care of the majority of the affected orders, there might still be customers affected by this situation beyond our knowledge. Below you may find a detailed guide on how to handle related cases.

Process overview

Customer contacts and suggests that they have been overcharged

1. Verify that customer has paid with installments & the order belongs to the Brazilian market

WBQLSN: Paid with instalments

2. Check Edvin errands history to verify if this is an already affected order or not

☐		2022-10-25 16:22 [redacted]	[redacted]	13: Mail Out / 2: Cancellation / refund	2: Already cxnl / 2: Infid refund pending Order affected by installments overcharge in BR market // Bulk email sent to inform pax abt issue and expect a refund in 2-3 weeks.
☐		2022-10-25 16:22 System Internal		Brazilian installments overcharge	Email sent to [redacted] Reply type: No-reply 19 more lines

Already affected order: If this errand is present in Edvin, check the errand date and compare it to the current date (Customers are given a time frame of 2-3 weeks for the funds to reach their end)

- Time frame has not passed (customer calling before 3 weeks): Advise the customer to wait further and register errand

Channel : Phone In/Email in

Category : Payment questions

Type : dLocal Installments issues

Action Information provided

- Time frame has been exceeded (customer calling after 3 weeks): We are not expecting to have calls from customers after the aforementioned time frame

New-possibly affected order: If this errand is not present in Edvin, advise customer that in order for us to investigate further, we need bank statement or documentation of proof of the extra charge to be provided. Send customer an e-mail from Edvin (First line - Others - BR installments overcharge - asking docs) and advise to upload documents in the link provided. Register errand including the information "requested bank statement/proof from pax"

Channel : Phone In/Email in

Category : Payment questions

Type : dLocal Installments issues

Action Information provided

When customer uploads the documentation, a contact form in etrack queue ETG English - FL Other receipts will automatically be created.

Following up cases from etrack queue

Case is picked up by dedicated agent working from etrack queue. Steps for handling:

1. Locate order in Edvin (using reference or e-mail address from the contact form)
2. Verify that customer has paid with installments & the order belongs to the Brazilian market
3. Review the documentation shared by customer
4. Open payment tab in Edvin to find the total amount of installments payment

