Step 1 - Starting point

Question

No linked steps

For various reasons, ETG may decide to proceed with a currency switch on any of our websites. This may mean, for example, that market transactions that used to be charged in EUR will start to be charged in the local currency, or market prices that used to be displayed in USD will start to be displayed in the local currency, etc.

- 1. Whenever we implement a currency switch related to displayed currency, it affects Edvin's Add-on cart image in the existing orders created before the date of the switch. The configurations cannot be updated for the already existing orders in terms of applicable currency; therefore, even if the values in the Add-on cart are updated, when creating a cart, you will still see the old currency.

- in Total amount of your products in cart:

Products in cart
Name	Text to customer	Amount
Our Service Fee - Vol. Rebooking - 1 traveler selected		4960.00
Total amount:		EUR 4960.00

- in existing cart image in Add on purchases tab:

ATTENTION: Unless the correct value of the fee (as per currently applicable pricelist) is visible in the cart image, the above issue occurs only on our end. The customer sees the correct currency in the received payment link and is charged the correct value in the correct currency during the transaction.

Whenever a currency switch is implemented, below guidelines will be updated to reflect all the affected markets.

Tips for correct handling of cases in markets affected by the above issue:

- Remember that all values pre-filled in Edvn carts correspond to the currency applicable for each market as per the pricelist here.
- If you need to manually insert the value in the Add-on cart, always convert the amount to the currency stated in the above pricelist (use the pricelist for correct amount on our service fees)
- All prices MUST be communicated to the passenger in the currency visible on the pricelist
- Disregard the currency visible in Edvin

The orders created after the currency switch are NOT affected.

- 2. Switches in charging currency (stand-alone!) do not affect the image of the Add-on cart.
