

When answering customer emails select the correct standard reply and always address the customer as Hi (first name) and conclude the email with Kind regards.

Always answer email questions in the order that you receive them and maintain a respectful tone while stating facts.

Example;

Hi (first name),

Unfortunately, it has not been possible to rebook your ticket.

The airline's rules state that you must rebook your ticket at least XX days before departure, and the latest date for rebooking has now passed. This means that we are unfortunately unable to rebook your ticket.

Kind regards,
