

| Category                                           | Type                                              | Action                                         | Used by       | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1: Rebooking                                       | 8: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1: Rebooking                                       | 8: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2: Cancellation / refund                           | 16: Incorrect department SC                | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 2: Cancellation / refund                           | 16: Incorrect department SC                | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3: Claim wrong itinerary/dupe                      | 4: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 3: Claim wrong itinerary/dupe                      | 4: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 5: Document & travel info                          | 7: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 5: Document & travel info                          | 7: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 6: Payment questions                               | 16: Incorrect department SC                | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 6: Payment questions                               | 16: Incorrect department SC                | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 7: Baggage                                         | 6: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 7: Baggage                                         | 6: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 8: Seating                                         | 5: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 8: Seating                                         | 5: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 9: Other services / products                       | 8: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                    |
| 9: Other services / products                       | 8: Incorrect department SC                 | Placed on FL Support Queue                     | SC team       | Rebooking case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 1: Change made                                 | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM in case change completed by FL in a system                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 2: Inf'd about rbk                             | FL & SC teams | PAX has a question regarding REB due to FM - info was provided to PAX                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 3: Referred to airline                         | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM in case we were not able to assist and refer PAX to the airline                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 4: Sent to support                             | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM in case we place the order on support Q                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 5: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM when the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 6: Against Open Ticket                         | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM when PAX calling to use open tkt                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 7: Against Voucher/EMD                         | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM when PAX calling to use voucher                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 8: Sent PL                                     | FL & SC teams | REB request due to FM in case we sent PL                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 1: Rebook                                  | 10: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 1: CXNL, sent for refund                       | FL & SC teams | PAX requested cxnl due to FM and reservation was cancelled                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 2: Inf'd about cxnl                            | FL & SC teams | PAX has a question regarding the cxnl due to FM - info was provided to the PAX                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 3: Referred to airline                         | FL & SC teams | PAX requested cxnl due to FM, we were not able to assist and refer PAX to the airline                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 4: Sent to support                             | FL & SC teams | PAX requested cxnl due to FM and we place the order on support Q.                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 5: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | PAX requested cxnl due to FM and the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 7: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 2: Cancel                                  | 8: LCC claim done                              | FL & SC teams | The customer contacted us for an FM refund of LCC PNR and FL actually proceeded with the necessary actions to request the refund from the airline (either on the airline's website or any other way mentioned for the specific airline in Edvin docs/Shell) |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 3: General questions                       | 1: Info provided                               | FL & SC teams | PAX has general questions regarding FM situation - info was provided to the PAX                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 3: General questions                       | 2: Referred to airline                         | FL & SC teams | PAX has general questions regarding FM situation, we were not able to assist and refer PAX to the airline                                                                                                                                                   |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 3: General questions                       | 3: Sent to support                             | FL & SC teams | PAX has general questions regarding FM situation and we place the order on support Q.                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 3: General questions                       | 4: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | PAX has general questions regarding FM situation and the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 3: General questions                       | 5: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 4: Open ticket                             | 1: Open ticket done                            | FL & SC teams | PAX requested open tkt due to FM and change was completed by FL in a system                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 4: Open ticket                             | 2: Informed about open tkt                     | FL & SC teams | PAX has a questions regarding the Open tkt due to FM - info was provided to the PAX                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 4: Open ticket                             | 3: Send to support                             | FL & SC teams | PAX requested open tkt due to FM and we place the order on support Q.                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 4: Open ticket                             | 4: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | PAX requested open tkt due to FM and the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 4: Open ticket                             | 5: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 5: Voucher                                 | 1: Voucher sent for issuance                   | FL & SC teams | PAX requested voucher due to FM and voucher sent for issuance                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 5: Voucher                                 | 2: Informed about voucher                      | FL & SC teams | PAX was informed about voucher due to FM                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 5: Voucher                                 | 3: Sent to support                             | FL & SC teams | PAX requested voucher due to FM and we place the order on support Q.                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 5: Voucher                                 | 4: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | PAX requested voucher due to FM and the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 5: Voucher                                 | 5: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 1: Informed about discount code                | FL & SC teams | REB request made by Self Service due to FM - information provided to PAX about discount code                                                                                                                                                                |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 2: Change made                                 | FL & SC teams | REB request completed by Self Service due to FM                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 3: No change made                              | FL & SC teams | REB request made by Self Service due to FM in case change could not be completed                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 4: Sent PL / email                             | FL & SC teams | When the fare expires and agent need to collect additional payment they send another PL                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 5: Sent to support                             | FL & SC teams | REB request made by Self Service due to FM and we place the order on support Q.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 6: Already on support                          | FL & SC teams | REB request made by Self Service due to FM and the case is already on support Q                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 7: Referred to airline                         | FL & SC teams | REB request made by Self Service due to FM, we were not able to assist and refer PAX to the airline                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 6: Self-Service Rebooking                  | 8: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 7: Call transfer/Callback (SOD/TL/Manager) | 1: Pax requested call transfer/callback        | FL & SC teams | PAX has a complain regarding the order due to FM and requests to speak with SV                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 7: Call transfer/Callback (SOD/TL/Manager) | 2: Already escalated                           | FL & SC teams | PAX has a complain regarding the order due to FM, requests to speak with SV and case is already escalated                                                                                                                                                   |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 7: Call transfer/Callback (SOD/TL/Manager) | 3: Already on Support - Escal to Urgent queue  | FL & SC teams | To be used when the case is already on normal support queue, and the customer calls back to follow up the same request for the 3rd time                                                                                                                     |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Already handled SC                             | SC team       | FM case already handled and discovered in SC Chat or SC Phone task                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Already actioned by the airline                | SC team       | FM case already handled, by the airline. Discovered in SC Chat task (For exchanged tickets after a SC)                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Information Provided                           | SC team       | FM case already handled, discovered in SC Phone task.                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Removed from Dashboard                         | SC team       | FM case already handled, discovered in SC Payment Link task                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Removed from support queue                     | SC team       | FM case already handled, discovered in SC Support                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | Already on dashboard/queue                     | SC team       | FM case already on monthly queue, discovered in SC Support                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 08: Already handled SC                     | 7: Escalated to SL                             | SC team       | To be used as a second errand flow after modifying the order or refunding the EMD after reissue due to SC, in-order to escalate the case to BO                                                                                                              |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 09: Incorrect department SC                | Interaction transferred to B.com queue         | SC team       | FM case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team for B.com customer                                                                                                                                        |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 09: Incorrect department SC                | Removed from Dashboard/Queue                   | SC team       | FM case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 10: Already handled                        | 1: Closed email                                | FL            | To be used for email interactions when the case is already handled and no further action is needed                                                                                                                                                          |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 10: Already handled                        | 2: Chat closed                                 | FL            | To be used for chat interactions when the case is already handled and no further action is needed                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 10: Already handled                        | 3: Resolved and removed from MAC               | FL support    | To be used when the case is already handled and no further action is needed                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 10: Already handled                        | 4: Removed from dashboard                      | FL support    | To be used for Payment links when the case is already handled and no further action is needed                                                                                                                                                               |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 11: Incorrect department                   | 1: Interaction transferred to SC               | FL            | To be used when the case needs to be transferred to SC                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10: Force Majeure                                  | 11: Incorrect department                   | 2: Interaction transferred to B.com queue      | FL            | To be used when the case is in the wrong queue and needs to be transferred to B.com queue                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 1: SC - Information provided                   | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent informed pax and provide all the required information                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 2: FM - Information provided                   | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate FM (open tkt, voucher)                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 3: Minor SC - No change made                   | SC team       | Pax found a SC and ctc us, but agent found that this is a SC with less than 30 minutes (we NOT informing pax for such cases)                                                                                                                                |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 4: No change made / Pax decline                | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate flights. Pax wants to think & get back to us                                                                                                                                                           |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 5: Change made                                 | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate flights pax agreed. Agent change made or send the booking to tkting Q                                                                                                                                  |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 6: Cxnl, sent for refund                       | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate flights, but pax request for refund. Agent modify the button or refund the ticket (FLX & LCC)                                                                                                          |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 7: Send to support queue                       | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate flights, but waiver required hence agent place the PNR on support queue for escalation to YY or manager                                                                                                |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 8: Already on support                          | SC team       | Pax found SC and ctc us, our agent offered alternate flights waiver required but already on a support queue i.e. awaiting supplier response                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 9: Referring to airline                        | SC team       | 1st email sent to the customer with valid alt. Or reply to pax query and resolved their issue                                                                                                                                                               |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 10: LCC claim done                             | SC team       | SC Agent claimed the LCC order, and placed it on refund dash via modify button.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 11: Escalated to Coordinator/TL - Possible RL  | SC team       | SC Agent send cases to Team Leaders/Coordinator for further investigation during retail loss process.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 12: Inf'd refund processed                     | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and the refund has already been processed                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 1: Pax has discovered sc by themselves     | 13: Inf'd refund pending                       | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and we inf'd PAX that refund is still pending                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 1: SC - Information provided                   | SC team       | 1st email sent to the customer with valid alt. or reply to pax query confirmation, for Minor and trivial where we send a notification to the customers. (Non-VI orders)                                                                                     |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 2: FM - Information provided                   | SC team       | Agent found that a SC with less than 30 minutes (we NOT informing pax for such cases)                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 4: No change made / Pax declined               | SC team       | After we informed about SC, pax decline to make changes.                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 5: Change made                                 | SC team       | After we informed about SC, pax revert to confirm the alternative, so agent reissue/place on tkt Q.                                                                                                                                                         |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 6: Cxnl, sent for refund                       | SC team       | After we informed about SC, pax request refund, so agent place it on refund Q/or refund the ticket (for FLX, LCC before modify the order)                                                                                                                   |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 7: Send to support queue                       | SC team       | After we informed about SC, pax revert to confirm the alternative/refund, but a waiver is required from the YY. Agent place it on support                                                                                                                   |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 8: Already on support                          | SC team       | After we informed about SC, pax revert to check the status of his request, but waiver required and the PNR is already on a support queue i.e. awaiting supplier response                                                                                    |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 9: Referring to airline                        | SC team       | After we informed about SC, agent needs to redirect the customer to the airline or customer desire to ctc YY                                                                                                                                                |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 10: No SC on the file                          | SC team       | Notification regarding SC received from the airline, but the file do not contain a SC                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 11: Past dated                                 | SC team       | Past dated PNRs, where pax has not contacted us and we missed to inform him on time                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 13: EMDs due to invl                           | SC team       | To be used when ONLY a refund of EMD required (either to us or to customer, based on modify reason) / (Not to be used for Double Errand action)                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 12: LCC claim done                             | SC team       | SC Agent claimed the LCC order, and placed it on refund dash via modify button.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 14: Escalated to Coordinator/TL - Possible RL  | SC team       | SC Agent send cases to Team Leaders/Coordinator for further investigation during retail loss process.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 15: Inf'd refund processed                     | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and the refund has already been processed                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 2: We have inf. about SC                   | 16: Inf'd refund pending                       | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and we inf'd PAX that refund is still pending                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 4: Call transfer/Callback (SOD/TL/Manager) | 1: Pax requested call transfer/callback        | SC team       | PAX requested to speak with SV for cancellation issue/complaint                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 4: Call transfer/Callback (SOD/TL/Manager) | 2: Already escalated                           | SC team       | PAX requested to speak with SV for cancellation issue/complaint while case is already escalated                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 1: SC - Information Provided                   | SC team       | VI: 1st email sent to the customer with the SC alt. for VI orders with Connection Guarantee Also, when agent reply to pax query and resolved their issue                                                                                                    |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 2: FM - Information Provided                   | SC team       | VI: 1st email sent with the FM alt. for VI orders with Connection Guarantee Also, when agent reply to pax query and resolved their issue                                                                                                                    |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 3: Minor SC - No change made                   | SC team       | VI: SC with less than 30 minutes VI orders (we NOT informing pax for such cases)                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 4: Change made                                 | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax revert to confirm the alternative, so we reissue/place on tkt Q.                                                                                                                                                        |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 5: No change made / Pax declined               | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax decline to make changes.                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 6: New tkt sell                                | SC team       | VI: VI orders with Connection Guarantee, when agents need to offer a new ticket sell or new tkt as our charge                                                                                                                                               |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 7: Send PL/email                               | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax revert to ask for another alternative and we need to charge our assisted fee                                                                                                                                            |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 8: Cxnl, sent for refund                       | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax revert to ask for refund. Agent refund or modify the order and place it on SL                                                                                                                                           |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 9: Send to support                             | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax revert to confirm the alternative/refund, but a waiver is required from the YY. Agent place it on support                                                                                                               |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 10: Already on support                         | SC team       | VI: After we informed about SC, pax revert to check the status of his request, but waiver required and the PNR is already on a support queue i.e. awaiting supplier response                                                                                |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 11: No SC on the file                          | SC team       | VI: Notification for SC received, but the file do not contain a SC                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 12: Past dated                                 | SC team       | VI: Past dated orders, where pax has not contacted us                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 13: LCC claim done                             | SC team       | VI: SC Agent claimed the LCC order, and placed it on refund dash via modify button.                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 14: Escalated to Coordinator/TL - Possible RL  | SC team       | SC Agent send cases to Team Leaders/Coordinator for further investigation during retail loss process.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 15: Inf'd refund processed                     | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and the refund has already been processed                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 5: Against Connection Guarantee            | 16: Inf'd refund pending                       | SC team       | PAX requested cxnl, reservation already cancelled and the refund has already been processed                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Already handled SC                             | SC team       | SC case was already handled but discovered in the SC queue.                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Already actioned by the airline                | SC team       | SC case was already handled by the airline and discovered in the SC queue (for exchanged tickets after a schedule change)                                                                                                                                   |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Information Provided                           | SC team       | SC case already handled, discovered in SC Phone task.                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Removed from Dashboard                         | SC team       | SC case already handled, discovered in SC Payment Link task                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Removed from support queue                     | SC team       | SC case already handled, discovered in SC Support                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Already on dashboard/queue                     | SC team       | SC case already on monthly queue, discovered in SC Support                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 6: Already handled SC                      | Escalated to SL                                | SC team       | To be used as errand flow after modifying the order from schedule change agents when an if a second errand is needed to escalate the case to BO                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 7: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to B.com queue         | SC team       | SC case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but should be in another department/team for B.com customer                                                                                                                                        |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 7: Incorrect department SC                 | Removed from Dashboard/Queue                   | SC team       | SC case discovered in SC Support task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 18: Schedule change                         | 7: Incorrect department SC                 | 3: Interaction transferred to VI queue         | SC team       | SC case discovered in SC Chat, SC Phone or SC Mail task, but agent not trained to handle VI and has to transfer interaction to VI trained agent.                                                                                                            |
| 25: Other Booking.com products              | 6: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Other services/products related to B.com questions discovered in SC Chat task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                     |
| 26: Booking.com phase 1 - No order in Edvin | 6: Incorrect department SC                 | Interaction transferred to FL                  | SC team       | Bcom no order in Edvin questions discovered in SC Chat task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                       |
| 36: ETG Escalation                          | 10: Already Handled SC                     | 1. Email/Etrack Closed                         | SC team       | Case discovered in ETG Escalation task, and it is already handled by another team                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 36: ETG Escalation                          | 11: Incorrect Department SC                | 1. Email/Etrack category changed               | SC team       | Case discovered in ETG Escalation task, but should be in another department/team                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 47: UA/RU 2022                              | 1: Waiving                                 | 1: Our service fee - change                    | FL            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 47: UA/RU 2022                              | 1: Waiving                                 | 2: Our service fee - cancellation              | FL            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 47: UA/RU 2022                              | 2: CXL guarantee                           | 1: Information provided as per UA/RU situation | FL            | To be used whenever customer complaints that they cannot use CXL guarantee vouchers on our website due to UA/RU situation (as per Shelf page CXL guarantee vouchers - UA/RU situation )                                                              |